

There is a sadness in my bones
And I cannot let go of the sadness
There is a silence and it's leading me into madness
You keep me from sinking down
Down too low
I'm paralyzed
And I need you close to

Shelter me from the cold starless night
Shelter me from the ghosts in my mind
I feel alive when I am in your arms
You set me free
Shelter me

I have been torn and twisted
Lost in a fog, I drifted
I'm drowning in my wounds
Can't breathe, suffocated
All my armor's fallen now
Pieces laid on the ground
I am naked
And I need you now to

Shelter me from the cold starless night
Shelter me from the ghosts in my mind
I feel alive when I am in your arms
You set me free
Shelter me

You showed me how
To knock it down
The mountain standing in front of me
And you showed me how
To crawl back out of who I didn't want to be Oh I need you here to

Shelter me from the cold starless night
Shelter me from the ghosts in my mind
I feel alive when I am in your arms
You set me free
You set me free
You set me free
Shelter me
