

Please

The Strike

I see your headlights comin' from a mile away
I see those red lights you're runnin'
Lookin' like you're here to stay
I hear your heartbeat
Gunnin' me down 'cause you just couldn't find nobody else on the pavement

And you've tryin' to make it happen with your fingertips
But I'ma need to hear it from your lips

Honey say please
I won't let you down
So don't walk yourself out
I'll take you back
Maybe if you just say please
I won't let down
So don't walk yourself out
I'll fight for you
Baby if you just say please

You play too cold to admit it
You really think I could see
Go ahead and take another minute
And say it to me
(Oh baby)

'Cause you've tryin' to make it happen with your fingertips
But I'ma need to hear it from your lips

Honey say please
I won't let you down
So don't walk yourself out
I'll take you back
Maybe if you just say please
I won't let down
So don't walk yourself out
I'll fight for you
Baby if you just say please (Please)

(I'll fight for you)
(But you need to ask)
(I'll give you one more chance)
(Just say the word, then I'll take you back)

Honey say please
I won't let you down
So don't walk yourself out
I'll take you back
Maybe if you just say please
I won't let you down
So don't walk yourself out
I'll fight for you
Baby if you just say please
I won't let you down
So don't walk yourself out
I'll fight for you
Baby if you just say please
I won't let down

So don't walk yourself out
I'll fight you
Baby if you just say please
