The Strike

Oh, I cast every scene
The waitress was the prom queen
Now she's caught in between
As hopes turn into daydreams
And all the extras standing by
Desperate to get a line
And I've read for parts so many times
But I'm still alive

Because your heartbeat is the soundtrack
That I play
In my head everyday
Oh yeah, your heartbeat is the soundtrack
That I play
In my head everyday

Second take and I'm wide awake
Watching back every mistake
But behind every frame
The score don't ever seem change
And even when the credits fade
I'll always see your name
When I was sure that there was no escape
We found a way

Because your heartbeat is the soundtrack
That I play
In my head everyday
Oh yeah, your heartbeat is the soundtrack
That I play
In my head everyday

Oh, your heartbeat is the soundtrack
In my head my head everyday
Oh yeah, your heartbeat is the soundtrack
In my head my head everyday

Forever
My mind is playing flashbacks

Don't matter
Your heartbeat is the soundtrack

Because your heartbeat is the soundtrack
That I play
In my head everyday
Oh yeah, your heartbeat is the soundtrack
That I play
In my head everyday

Oh, your heartbeat is the soundtrack
In my head my head everyday
Oh yeah, your heartbeat is the soundtrack
That I play
In my head my head everyday
