

Echoes

The Strumbellas

On another planet in a different time
It's the same old story, this one is mine
Something familiar but felt brand-new Crashed like a wave when I met you
When I met you

The frequency washed over me
Now I'm looking at the stars, lost in your sea
Sometimes we stumble, mostly we fall
It all starts to crumble, but I'm craving it all
I'm craving it all

Think I've been here before
A million times or more

I was looking for you
You were looking for me
And when the sound goes, that's when we know
It echoes, echoes
Echoes, echoes

I was looking for you
You were looking for me
And when the sound goes bang
It echoes, echoes
Echoes, echoes

Déjà vu when I look at you
Underneath the mountain by the light of the moon
Hanging out the window of a beat-up car
Burning down the highway, take me back to the start
Take me back to the start

Think I've been here before
Knocking at your door

I was looking for you
You were looking for me
And when the sound goes, that's when we know
It echoes, echoes
Echoes, echoes

I was looking for you
You were looking for me
And when the sound goes bang
It echoes, echoes
Echoes, echoes

This is the sound, this is the sound of my heart beating
This is the sound, this is the sound of my heart beating
This is the sound, this is the sound of my heart beating
This is the sound, this is the sound of my heart beating

I was looking for you
You were looking for me
It echoes, echoes

Echoes, echoes

I was looking for you
You were looking for me
It echoes, echoes
Echoes, echoes

I was looking for you
You were looking for me
It echoes, echoes
Echoes, echoes

I was looking for you
You were looking for me
And when the sound goes, that's when we know
Echoes, echoes
