

Hurricane

The Strumbellas

I might've lost my mind a while ago
Tryna ride out all these highs and lows

Oh-oh-oh, barely breathing on my own
Oh-oh-oh, buried underneath it all

When it hit me like a hurricane
I got swept up in all the pain
When it hit me like a hurricane
Oh-oh, oh-oh
As I watched it all wash away
It's all too much for me to take
Can I hold on for one more day?
When it hit me like a hurricane

You told me that I always feel like home
Now you say to pack my things and go

Oh-oh-oh, barely breathing on my own
Oh-oh-oh, buried underneath it all

When it hit me like a hurricane
I got swept up in all the pain
When it hit me like a hurricane
Oh-oh, oh-oh
As I watched it all wash away
It's all too much for me to take
Can I hold on for one more day?
When it hit me like a hurricane

Oh-oh, oh-oh
When it hit me like a hurricane
Oh-oh, oh-oh
When it hit me like a hurricane

Am I the only one? Am I the only one caught in the eye of the storm?
Am I the only one? Am I the only one caught in the eye of the storm?
Am I the only one? Am I the only one caught in the eye of the storm?
Am I the only one? Am I the only one caught in the eye of the storm?
Am I the only one? Am I the only one caught in the eye of the storm?
Am I the only one? Am I the only one caught in the eye of the storm?
Am I the only one? Am I the only one caught in the eye of the storm?
Am I the only one? Am I the only one? Am I the only one

When it hit me like a hurricane
I got swept up in all the pain
When it hit me like a hurricane
Oh-oh, oh-oh
As I watched it all wash away
It's all too much for me to take
Can I hold on for one more day?
When it hit me like a hurricane

Oh-oh, oh-oh
When it hit me like a hurricane
Oh-oh, oh-oh
When it hit me like a hurricane
