

Rhinestone

The Strumbellas

I wanna to get married in a shotgun chapel
Dressed in rhinestone, my family there
I wanna have children, move to the country
Spend my days there without a care

Take my pride, break my worth, take my heart ache
All my life, all that hurt, all that heartbreak
Is gonna bring me down

Well I lost my father to the hands of Jesus
It breaks my heart, Dad, you won't meet my son
I get so scared, Dad, will I be just like you?
Spend my life as a lonely ghost

Take my pride, break my worth, take my heart ache
All my life, all that hurt, all that heartbreak
Is gonna bring me down

I don't know why I hurt myself, but I hurt myself in the world
[x2]
All my life, all that hurt, all that heartbreak [x4]
Is gonna bring me down

Take my pride, break my worth, take my heart ache
All my life, all that hurt, all that heartbreak [x2]
All my life, all that hurt, all that heartbreak [x4]
Is gonna bring me down
