

Steal My Soul

The Strumbellas

Sometimes it's all that I can do to get up out of bed
Talking to the angels, fighting demons in my head
Oh, oh
Oh, oh

Coffee and a cigarette, and I don't even smoke
Sometimes you gotta laugh when you're the butt of every joke
Oh, oh

Drowning, digging deeper, following the leader
Everyday dreamer, part-time believer
The river's getting low now, heavy is the load now
But I ain't gonna go down

I, I, I, I'm still breathing
My heart's still beating
Running from the devil down a dead-end road
But ain't nobody gonna steal my soul
Steal my soul, steal my soul
Ain't nobody gonna steal my soul
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh

Spend my life chasing that very first high
Smile on my face but there's thunder in my mind
Oh, oh
Oh, oh

It's hard to find my footing when I'm hanging by a thread
Been knocked down, but I keep coming back again
Oh, oh
Oh, oh

Drowning, digging deeper, following the leader
Everyday dreamer, part-time believer
The river's getting low now, heavy is the load now
But I ain't gonna come down

I, I, I, I'm still breathing
My heart's still beating
Running from the devil down a dead-end road
But ain't nobody gonna steal my soul
Steal my soul, steal my soul
Ain't nobody gonna steal my soul
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh

You know you got the fight of your life ahead
You can't worry about what the whole world says
Lightning crashes
I'm rising up from the ashes
I'm rising up from the ashes

I, I, I, I'm still breathing
My heart's still beating
Running from the devil down a dead-end road
But ain't nobody gonna steal my soul

Steal my soul, steal my soul
Ain't nobody gonna steal my soul
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Ain't nobody
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Steal my soul

Sometimes it's all that I can do to get up out of bed
Talking to the angels, fighting demons in my head
Oh, oh
