

21st Century Dandy

The Struts

Alone in the dark
Soon to embark
Whomever may tickle my fancy
Casting my spell
I'm wearing it well
A 21st century dandy
And when I arrive
The town comes alive
With a sense of expectation
For me to perform
From dusk until dawn
Answer my imagination
Answer baby

Come on, come on
Are you ready tonight for the ride of your life?
So come on, come on
Are you holding on tight?
Cause I'm ready to fly
Back with a new sensation
For a disenchanted generation
Come on, come on
Throw your hands to the sky
Come on!

Nothing has changed
I'm still on the stage
I've always been the last man dancing
From clubs in New York
To Spanish resorts haha
Looking for a little rrromancing
Dazzling these lips
And faces and hips
Attending every midnight soiree
In front of their eyes
The final surprise
Revealing it for one night only

Come on, come on
Are you ready tonight for the ride of your life?
Come on, come on
Are you holding on tight?
Cause I'm ready to fly
Back with a new sensation
For a disenchanted generation
Come on, come on
Throw your hands to the sky
Come on!

Come on, come on
Are you ready tonight for the ride of your life?
So come on, come on
Throw your hands to the sky
Like you're ready to die
Come on, come on
Are you holding on tight?
Cause I'm ready to fly

Come on, come on
With the flash in my eyes
You'll be ready to try
Back with a new sensation
For my disenchanted generation
Come on, Come on
Throw your hands to the sky
Come on
