

Remember The Name

The Struts

One, two, a one, two, three, four
Woo
Woo
Good god

East coast, west coast, show me the way
If you got a place you know I'm ready to go (Are you ready?)
I'm ready to go (Oh), uh
Toking like a smoke stack, blazing away
Spinning like a dynamo, we're ready to go (Are you ready?)
I'm 'bout to explode, yeah

Do what you do like you do it to me
Do just what you do all the time, yeah

Come alive, take a ride
Inside of my brain, remember the name
I'm alive, be my guide
And ride the fast lane, remember the name
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Take me in, let the fun begin
Come alive, take a ride
Inside of my brain
Remember the name

(You better remember it, baby, oh)

Kimmy K and Ray J, suck it and see
Now you got a claim to fame in every frame (Yeah)
Every single frame
Everybody's small screen fantasy
Faster than a hurricane, screaming your name
Scream it, baby
Screaming your name (Yeah), uh

Do what you do like you do it to me
Do just what you do all the time, yeah

Come alive, take a ride
Inside of my brain, remember the name
I'm alive, be my guide
And ride the fast lane, remember the name
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Take me in, let the fun begin
Come alive, take a ride
Inside of my brain
Remember the name

Any time, anywhere, any place, I don't care
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Oh, oh, woo

Come alive, take a ride

Inside of my brain, remember the name
And ride the fast lane, remember the name
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Inside of my brain

(Oh, don't you forget it, babe)
