

Best Man

The Strypes

Uptight
Cowboys gimme snake eyes
I can't stand it
Pea sized
That's how I feel yeah
I'm weak I

Feel it manifesting
You know they've got the wrong impression
Oh baby welcome to perception
Oh baby welcome to perception

I'm trying to be somebody else
But everybody else is taken
And I need you
I need your helping hand
Yeah you know yeah you know yeah you know
You're my best man
I said I need you
I need a helping hand
Yeah you know yeah you know yeah you know
You're my best man

Loaded
Well boy you must be loaded
No only my night out
But every night is my night out
Cause it's just so easy
Cowgirl's here to squeeze me
But that ain't how they raised me
I said no that ain't how they raised me

Tryin' to be some somebody else but everybody else seems taken
Tryin' to find a former self but my memory is mistaken
And I need you
I need your helping hand
Well you know yeah you know yeah you know
You're my best man
I said I need you
I need a helping hand
Well you know yeah you know yeah you know
You're my best man

I said I need you
I need a helping hand
Well you know it and you know yeah you know
You're my best man
I said I need you
I need your helping hand
Yeah you know yeah you know yeah you know
You're my best man

Uptight
Are you alright it's just it feels right
You should know I saw the safe [?] eyes
You should know that so am I
