

Eighty-Four

The Strypes

I'm drowning in her gaze
She's got me six feet deep
She's an everlasting stain
Under the heart sheets

She keeps me up till the morning
Baby ecstasy
She got me tossing and turning
Yeah she gets to me
I can't control myself when she's next to me
When she's next to me

Well she's an earthquake
Got me under the door
She's a soul crate
She's the full 24
She gives me Aha Shake Heartbreak
4 to the floor
My Julia my escape
Eighty four eighty four

Am I a week away?
Am I your sunshine?
If I'm just a rainy day
Then let the heavens fall fulltime

And keep me up till the morning
Baby ecstasy
You got me tossing and turning
Yeah you get to me
I can't control myself when you're next to me
When you're next to me

Well she's an earthquake
Got me under the door
She's a soul crate
She's the full 24
She gives me Aha Shake Heartbreak
4 to the floor
My Julia my escape
Eighty four eighty four

So keep me up till the morning
Baby ecstasy
You've got me tossing and turning
Yeah you get to me
I can't control myself when you're next to me
When you're next to me

Well she's an earthquake
Got me under the door
She's a soul crate
She's a full 24
She gives me Aha Shake Heartbreak
4 to the floor
My Julia my escape

Well she's an earthquake
She's a soul crate
She's a full 24
4 to the floor
My Julia my escape
