

Maybe It's Because You're Lonely

The Stylistics

Does the night seem to long
Do you stay at the phone?
Do you listen for a footstep at the door?
Are you still up at three?
Are you still watching TV?
Though there's nothing on you haven't seen before

Maybe it's because you're lonely
Maybe it's because you're blue
Maybe it's because you need me back again
To help you make it through

Are you smoking too much
Do you reach out, to touch
Someone's hand although you know
Do the thoughts in your head
Make you toss in your bed
Do you cry because you think that no one care

Maybe it's because you're lonely
Maybe it's because you're blue
Maybe it's because you need me back again
To help you make it through
Maybe it's because you're lonely
Maybe it's because you're blue
