

Only from the Heart

The Stylistics

My heart
If it should ever stop
I know I would have not
Known what true love could bring
And how
When there's a broken heart
Two people torn apart
Can never be the same

In my mind can I be sure
Of what I feel inside
Can I find that special love
That gives me peace of mind
Comes only from the heart

From the heart
There shines true love that hides within
Oh burning love that never ends
When it comes
From the heart
Is where the ache of love begins
So true is love no need to pretend
When it comes
Only from the heart

My heart
With every single beat
The thought of love I'll keep
Through all the test of time
I hope
That one day I can start
To open up my heart
And let love's true light shine

In my mind can I be sure
Of what I feel inside
Can I find that special love
That gives me peace of mind
Comes only from the heart

From the heart
There shines true love that hides within
Oh burning love that never ends
When it comes
From the heart
Is where the ache of love begins
So true is love no need to pretend
When it comes
Only from the heart
Only from the heart
