

Come out and see for yourself
Just what we've got to do
These lights are burning bright
And we are burning too
I live a love affair
In my mind
There's more to life out there
Than passing time

I'll run away
Run away, yeah yeah yeah
Someday, someday

Come on!

You've got to know yourself
And know what you do
'Cause I've seen the wisest
That becomes the biggest wolves
All the day and all the night
If and when
One day I'll get it right
Until then

I'll run away
Run away, yeah yeah yeah
Someday, someday

I'll run away
Run away
Run away
Run away, yeah yeah yeah
