

I Am Young

The Subways

I am young
But I know where I am from
Times have changed
Good times have been and gone

And all the while, I walk
I'll keep walking on
The things I've done
I can't, I can't change them no more

And I should learn
That I must wait my turn
I'm trying to stand
Even if my heart should burn in the sun

I lost my way
I got lost on the way home
Nothing's changed
[?] locked in my room

And all the while, I walk
I'll keep walking on
The things I've done
I can't, I can't change them no more

And I should learn
That I must wait my turn
I'm trying to stand
Even if my heart should burn in the sun
In the sun

And I should learn
That I must wait my turn
I'm trying to stand
Even if my heart should burn in the sun

In the sun
