Numbers

The Suicide Machines

Typewriters bang, everyday it is the same fact is these people are going insane they got sad eyes, no reply they've been doing this shit all day and they don't know why they don't know the way that's probably why they're going insane they can't think with all those fuckin

there's too much on the line for numbers-there's too much emphasis on numbers-
there's too much on the line for numbers-there's too much emphasis on go!

machine goes ping, telephone rings yeah all his life he's been doing the same thing got sad eyes, no reply i've been doing thi shit all day and i don't know why

thats probaly why they're going insane
they can't think with all those fuckin

there's too much on the line for numbers
there's too much emphasis on numbers
go!
stop!
