

8 A.M.

The Summer Obsession

There in the summer of my new obsession all of my dreams started in the depression 8 in the morning and I got your letter sealed with a kiss
P.S things will get better

And I never say no to you
And I never say no to you

Get me up early and so motivated life as we know it is so overrated you are the best thing that I'm never needing safe in this world that is restless and feeding

And I never say no to you.
And I never say no to you.

You say everything will be everything will be alright
You say everything will be alright

Come to my rescue whenever I call
Knock on my door if ever I fall
Come to my rescue whenever I call Say you will, say you will, say you will, say you will Knock on my door if ever I fall,
Just say you will, say you will, say-you say everything will be alright, everything will be alright

you say everything will be alright

Say you will (repeat) will be alright
