Corrosive

The Summer Obsession

My skin is burnin' like a red hot
I hear you 'till my ears pop
And I can feel errosion in my bones
Pull over let me out at the next stop
I remember how your jaw dropped
When I screamed I've got to go
Away
Away
You're corrosive
Eating me all the way through
(I don't need to be touched by you)
You're corrosive
Eating me all the way through
(I don't need to be touched by you)
I'm running down the street
Bear feet on the boiling count on green
I forgot just who I was
Living under your rug
Rotting inside out
That broke down haunted house

And my ghost just has to go
Away
Away
You're corrosive
Eating me all the way through
(I don't need to be touched by you)
You're corrosive
Eating me all the way through
(I don't need to be touched by you)
I don't need you next to me
I'm picking up the peices
Of the chunks of my heart
You're corrosive
Eating me all the way through
You are corrosive
Eating me all the way through
(I don't need to be touched by you)
You are corrosive
You are corrosive
(I don't need to be touched by you)
You are corrosive
You are corrosive
(I don't need to be touched by you)
