

Blisterment

The Superjesus

Was I dead, lying on my bed, or was it just because I'm inside out of doubt And I could try, and see the reason why, that now I'm miles away, answers only question what I found.

And I could smile, maybe for a while, its only ever when I'm sleeping...I'm awake
And now I'll find I've been wasting time, its seems a lot to me,
its just a little more than I can take.

(3x) Safe in sympathy, that's all that I wanted around now I'm coming down Erase it all to me, whenever I fail to see.
