

Manic

The Superjesus

I'm loosely affected, don't seem to connected, I'm learning
A rough indication with some limitation, I'm turning
Throw me a line, surrender only if you need
Safe seconds in time are hard to beat
All out of action, quietly under siege
A little more to take the edge and slip it under me
I'm just a little bit manic lately

I'm taking you with me so take on my misery safely
With no sense in feeling, enlightenment healing it lately
Throw me a line surrender only if you need
Safe seconds in time are hard to beat

All out of action, quietly under siege
A little more to take the edge and slip it under me
I'm just a little bit manic lately

The meters a runnin' so tell me your comin', i'm waiting
With no sense believing we're animals feeding and mating

All out of action...
