

(first song only, second has no lyrics in cd)

lost forever
'cause dreams are never afraid to call you now you're alone
and it's not idea and nothing helps you to feel the seasons you'll never know and I'll follow through and I'll follow you
and I know it suits me fine
I was waiting for the longest ride shakes the fortunes and knows the waters around the ocean where you couldn't hide and I see you run from anyone when you call the reasons that you never tried
I was waiting for the longest ride
and I was down and I know it now and I've wasted all my time somethings lost along this road of mine and now I've wasted all my time...
