

My Only

The Supermen Lovers

Open the window, let the sun shine in
You are the light that I been waiting on
Look at the sky and I'm shivering
You are the blue that I've been missing

I could give my life to you
And you could be my love for you

Is it a chance that you came to me?
'Cause I can't believe everything I see
Well how can I thank you for the joy you bring?

You saved my world
Hurt me with words
You changed my life
And you closed my eyes

I feel so strong when you look at me
Your smile [?] to put me on my knees
How can I get more satisfaction
When there's my wife cleaning the situation?

It's time to rise or dance all night
To feel the wind or hold you tight

Is it a chance that you came to me?
'Cause I can't believe everything I see
Well how can I thank you for the joy you bring?

You saved my world
Hurt me with words
You changed my life
And you closed my eyes

You changed my life

You saved my world
Hurt me with words
You changed my life
And you closed my eyes
