loneliness
in the sea of dancing silhouettes how tender is the night.
velvet rooms
crystal balls & crippled fools all of us in love.
it's crawling in
the night is crawling in strip off

loose yourself
in the elevator music way blindly walk the streets.
kaleidoscoped universe exploding
on the back of your eyelids.
it's crawling in
the night is crawling in
wake up

those eerie lights... electric bulbs kill butterflies like sleeping pills kill dreams. emptiness.
no words of wisdom in your mouth the silence moves within
