

All At Once

The Sweepings

A burning
A craving
Calling out for
You like honey
So sweetly
Covered in your
Golden vibrant light
Took me by surprise

All at once
I knew it
All at once
I felt it
It's everything and ever was
It's me and you
Always us
All at once
All at

Once a dreamer
Remember
All the things
We hoped would happened
They happened
Somewhere from the blue and diamond sky
A world of you and I

All at once
I knew it
All at once
I felt it
It's everything and ever was
It's me and you
Always us
All at once

Stay, babe
Hold me close
I've, waited
Now I know
It was you

All at once
I knew it
All at once
I felt it
It's everything and ever was
It's me and you
Always us
All at once
