

Fool

The Sweepings

I should've known better, known better
Then take your heart from ya, heart from ya
Knew it all along, I would do you wrong

I should've tried harder, tried harder
Fed all those lies to you, lies to you
But my blackened soul, lets you come in close

Fool you don't know what I've done
You can't see what I've seen
You don't know where I've been
You don't, you don't

Fool you don't know what I've done
You can't see what I've seen
You don't know where I've been
You don't, you don't

Bet you would die for me, die for me
Lay down your life honey, life honey
Poison in your cup, make believe it's love

Fool you don't know what I've done
You can't see what I've seen
You don't know where I've been
You don't, you don't

Fool you don't know what I've done
You can't see what I've seen
You don't know where I've been
You don't, you don't

Misery found inside of these bones
Pulling you in, just to let go
Oh oh oh oh
If only a pardon was falling my way
Turning my back on all wicked days
Oh oh oh oh
Fool you don't know what I've done

Fool you don't know what I've done
You can't see what I've seen
You don't know where I've been
You don't, you don't

Fool take your poor heart and run
Just stand and beg as I leave
Or swear that I'm all you need
You don't, you don't
Fool you don't know what I've done
