

In Between

The Sweepings

Feel, the earth pulling us in
Feel, feel the love as it begins
Now, we could ever be as one
Now never be undone

Here between the night and day
Lost and ever swept away
We're no longer you and me
We're something in between

Take me deep and timelessly
Take, take me further in this dream
Keep me suspended in your arms
Just keep, keep holding on

Here between the night and day
Lost and ever swept away
We're no longer you and me
We're something in between

My heart beating over endlessly
On and through the emptiness we'll be

Here between the night and day
Lost and ever swept away
We're no longer you and me
We're something
Yeah, we're something in between
