

Without You

The Sweepings

The rays of morning light
Creeping in between the blinds
Before the ground could hit my feet
Your common tone now falls empty
In a rush it all flies by
With a hope we still have time
My heart drops when we arrive
A linen sheet lay on your eyes

Words just slip away
Never got to say

What will I do without you
What will I do without you
What will I do without you
Goodbye
Must I try to live on without you

Around a year long sun
Who could know it'd be your last one
A hallway and hug goodnight
It still lingers in my mind

I told you every day
Said all I had to say

What will I do without you
What will I do without you
What will I do without you
Goodbye
Must I try to live on without you

Here in a sterile room
With every breathe I'm losing you
Falling over upon your chest
Feel the weight of what's ahead

Tears run down my face
With every word I say

What will I do without you
What will I do without you
What will I do without you
Goodbye
Must I try to live on without you
