

Hello World

the.switch

Hello world, here I am, all alone with you again,
Getting closer to the edge but I won't fall
'Cause I'm weak but I'm strong
And I got to hold on
To whats left in my head,
Before it's gone
Yeah x2

My soul feels defeated 'cause it's stuck in my shoes
But I'm considered a winner 'cause I got nothing to lose
So while you reach for the stars, I'll be touching the moon
With a paint brush, tryna colour it blue

'Cause its one in a million so I'm gonna need a miracle
To save my own life
'Cause I'm under experienced when it comes to your filament
Gotta shape my own light.
You ain't listening though, but I don't need y'all
I got a private jet inside my head and I'm about to free fall
Looking at you like at ant, want to squish me but you can't
You ain't bigger then i am naww

Hello world, here I am, all alone with you again,
Getting closer to the edge but I won't fall
'Cause I'm weak but I'm strong
And I got to hold on to whats left
In my head, before it's gone
Yeah x2

Don't push me 'cause I'm close to the edge
Alone in my head with a microphone and a pen at my live show
All of my fans got their hands in the air but
All i can see is the man in the mirror
Scanning through yearbooks, tryna figure out who I used to be 'cause I'm getting so scared of the future me
Looking' at my reflection like who is he but i'm Trying not to lose my head
So i'm gonna do my best, to remember who i am
'cause the world get heavy, but my brain got buff
From lifting the bar up so many levels, whenever theirs got stuck

Hello world, here I am, all alone with you again,
Getting closer to the edge but I won't fall.
'Cause I'm weak but I'm strong
And I got to hold on to whats left
In my head, before it's gone
Yeah x2
