

Promises Can Break

The System

Look in my eyes, and tell me you don't want me
Oh baby, just touch my hand, and tell me you can't, no no
Don't just walk away, no no
When we took so much love to make it
For just another day, I'll do anything to make you stay

So babe, do what you promise me
When promising can't stay with me
But now I'll see that promises can break

Oh... promises can break
Oh... promises can break

Baby, last night was our imagination
Don't let it slip away, we've only just begun
Baby, I can understand, if you got someone else to be your man
Baby, what you're runnin' from, if you're sayin' that I'm the only one

So babe, do what you promise me
When promising can't stay with me
But now I'll see that dreams can slip away

Oh... promises can break
Oh... oh, promises can break

Oh... promises can break
Oh... promises can break
Oh... dreams can slip away
Oh... promises can break
Oh... promises can break
