

All I Can Keep Is Now

The Tallest Man on Earth

Here is the noise
And it's passing through me
Street so warm
And its call so loud

Here, darling
All of the voices all the time

Whenever I sleep
It's a god damn journey
Every then I've seen
Is now

Here, darling
All of the hours all the time

Caught in the rain
The train is somewhere
Out there to bend
Your lover's time

Your buildings are like shadows
And your eyes are deep
Here, all I can keep is now

Let's make sure
That we wake up early
For a whiff
Of alone somehow

Here, darling
All of the hours all the time

Caught in the rain
Go rinse your worry
Walk it to bend
Your lover's time

Your buildings are like shadows
And your eyes are deep
Here, all I can keep is now

And all for a quiet surrender
A nowhere still out there to know
But from life in the arms of lovers
Can I bring someone when I go?

Ran into a friend
Yes, her eyes said something
About a joke
That went through somehow

Here, darling
All of the subtle all the time

There is the light
The light is in me

Isn't this all
A silly dream

Your buildings are like shadows
And your eyes are deep
