

Penny

The Tellers

Who said penny was just a dying soul she's just a bit lost,
Tonight it's her night she's gonna dance 'till she falls,
My daddy gave me money to take a cab,
Come on let's go buy liquor and dance,
And buddy let me introduce to you,
The girl I've got the girl that doesn't make me blue,

Sing wooh wooh,

Penny show me again the city lights,
Take me once again to Paris by night,
My daddy gave me money to take a bus,
Come on let's go buy liquor and drugs, lalala...
