

Already Know

The Temperance Movement

Take a moment in the madness
Maybe try to sit yourself down
You know the trick is just to keep on breathing
See all the beauty in the wildness
Listen to the riddles and the rhymes
Well they can never tell you nothing
That you don't already know

And I just wanna see you there
When you turn on that light
You're at your brightest baby
When the rest are fading out
And I don't need to say a prayer
That you'll be alright
Cos I know that you will stand
And I know that you will fight

I know you never lost faith for a minute
When it all came down
Even though you said your life was leaving you
I knew you'd never give up
I know you'll never stop giving your heart away
And I can't tell you anything
That you don't already know

And I just wanna see you there
When you turn on that light
You're at your brightest baby
When the rest are fading out
And I don't need to say a prayer
That you'll be alright
Cos I know that you will stand
And I know that you will fight

And I just wanna see you there
When you turn on that light
You're at your brightest baby
When the rest are fading out
And I don't need to say a prayer
That you'll be alright
Cos I know that you will stand
And I know that you will fight
