

Hurt So Bad

The Temptations

Hey, y'all
Let me tell you a little story
About me and my dawg
You know we go way back
We used to roll together, I mean, you know, we used to kick it
It hurt me so bad, I heard he was sleeping with my girl
Listen

Woke up out my bed this morning
And you were lying next to me
And, ooh, I get this funny feeling
That you're getting hit by my man up the street, yeah

(And it hurt so bad)
When it's the woman you love
(And it hurt so bad)
Now tell me who can I trust
(Going outta my mind)
Smokin' and drinkin' so much
(And it hurt so bad)
I said it hurt so bad

Found a little piece of paper
Had numbers on it so I called
It sound just like my boy named Otis
Now tell me what the hell's going on, yeah
(Whose calling hangin' up?) Ooh, girl, don't lie
(Whose phat farm boxers, girl?) Sure ain't mine, ain't mine
(Whose heartshaped candy box)? I didn't buy
Please, tell me, I just hope it ain't my dawg

(And it hurt so bad)
When it's the woman you love
(And it hurt so bad)
Now tell me who can I trust, yeah
(Going outta my mind)
Smokin' and drinkin' so much
(And it hurt so bad)
Girl, you hurt me
Oh, baby, hurt me so bad

All the night you creped out with another brother, hurt so bad
I don't understand
I was your lover, he was my friend

(And it hurt so bad)
When it's the woman you love
(And it hurt so bad)
Now tell me who can I trust
(Going outta my mind)
Smokin' and drinkin' so much
(And it hurt so bad) you hurt me, baby

Sing, it hurts so bad (girl, you know, you really hurt me)
And it hurt so bad (how could you if you really care?)
Going outta my mind (oh, you wanna hurt me, baby)
And it hurt so bad (how could you if you really care?)
