

My Telephone is Ringing

The Temptations

Early this morning, my telephone is ringing
But I'm afraid to answer
It's a quarter to three, and it's you calling me
But I don't wanna see what you have to say for yourself
I know you're gonna tell me that you've found someone else

And so I let it ring (Ring), a-ring on (Ring)
A-ring on (Ring), a-ring on (Ring)
I let it ring

I knew that it was coming, I knew that it was due
'Cause the thrill of your charm, the warmth of your arms
The spark of your eyes and the bliss of your kisses are gone
And that's how I knew it wouldn't be long

And so I let it ring (Ring), ring on (Ring)
A-ring on (Ring), a-ring on (Ring)
I let it ring (Ring, ring, ring, ring on)

All of this comes as no surprise to me
(It comes as no surprise to me)
You done it before, and so I know it's only us three

So the phone will keep on ringing, but I just won't answer
I know before long this fear will be gone
And you realize that you're mine and my heart will sing
And that's why I'm pretending I can't hear it ring

And so I let it ring (Ring), ring on (Ring)
A-ring on (Ring a little), a-ring on (Ring, ring)
A-ring on (Ring a little, ring)
Oh, oh (Ring a little)
Baby, I let it ring (Ring a little, ring, ring)
All the morning long (Ring a little, ring, ring)
All the morning long (Ring a little)
