Wouldn't it be great in this life
If we all could come together as

One world, one people, one love (one people)
One people, one love, one world
One world, one people, one love

One people, one love, one world (one love)

One people, one love, one world
One world, one people, one love (yeah)

One people, one love, one world (one love)
One world, one people, one love
One people, one love, one world (I'm gon' love)
One world, one people, one love (one world)
