

Jealous

The Tide

Let's begin, don't need to tie it
Cause you know you sinned
You let me hanging like a broken mayhem
Mmm, that shit got me crazy, crazy
I can see you haven't learned a thing from me
You left my body with a missing piece
Ooh, you know it's dirty, baby, baby

Now I take this body excuse me fellas
And I with them girls get your umbrellas
And not long you're starting to want me
But I'm just trying to make your friends jealous

(I can make your friends jealous)

Take a seat, I know you're fronting
But your knees are weak
You're looking epic, girl is wanting me
You're wondering why you ever left me, left me
Feel the beat, I pull you closer so our eyes can meet
I heard your ways and you're a work-your-knees
I bet you wish that you can get me, come get me

Now I take this body excuse me fellas
And I with them girls get your umbrellas
And not long you're starting to want me
But I'm just trying to make your friends jealous

(I can make your friends jealous)

Jealous, jealous, jealous, yeah

Now I take this body excuse me fellas
And I with them girls get your umbrellas
And not long you're starting to want me
But I'm just trying to make your friends jealous

I can make your friends jealous
Jealous, I'm just trying to make your friends jealous
