

Bye Bye Baby

The Toasters

Bye Bye Baby, Baby Bye Bye
You can't keep me no matter how hard you try
Bye Bye Baby, Baby Bye Bye

You always claimed to be a winner
You said you'd take that golden crown
But you turned out to be a sinner
And all that fancy talk has fallen down

You said you made the wrong decision
Complaining 'bout the deals gone bad
You put yourself in that position
Forgot about the good times that you had.
