Speak Your Mind

The Toasters

Speak your mind, little brother, speak your mind, (Yeah, yeah.)
That's how you leave your trouble behind. (All behind.)
You'll always feel best when you get it off your chest,
Speak your mind, little brother, speak your mind.

Some people try to be conceited, (Oh yeah.)
They say they're better than the whole human race. (Yeah, yeah.)
But these people are very soon defeated, (Yes they are.)
When you start to wag your finger in their face.

Speak your mind, little brother, speak your mind, (Oh.)
It's how you leave your trouble behind. (Speak your mind, all behind.)
You'll always feel best when you get it off your chest,
Just speak your mind, little brother, speak your mind.

Give it up for Lester.

Yeah, speak your mind.
Oh oh, oh yeah, oh oh, speak your mind.
Oh oh, oh yeah.
