

Thrill Me Up

The Toasters

Well I've been coming round here, for so long Suddenly everything seems so wrong, Like digging myself deeper into a hole Until I met you girl, I was just waiting on hold

But now you thrill me up, You thrill me up And you fill me up, With everything I need

It's not that easy for me to explain, Without embarrassment girl, and lots of pain You know that I'm not used to all this honesty, This whole love thing is such a risk to me

Now I've been coming round here, for so long Suddenly everything seems so wrong, Like digging myself deeper into a hole 'Til I met you girl, I was just waiting on hold

But now you thrill me up, You thrill me up And you fill me up, With everything I need

What do you do to me girl (Thrill me up) What do you do to me girl (Thrill me up) You thrill me, thrill me Thrill me thrill me I don't want to say it one more time Turn around and you'll be mine
