

Age of Miracles

The Trews

Wishing my whole life away ...waiting for the day
Transcendental disarray ...waiting for the day

Always close but never quite there ...waiting for the day
Happier endings, they must be out there ...waiting for the day

Swear I'll get my shit together... waiting for the day
A day's grace, a three day bender... waiting for the day

I'll never be the be all end all...
But that opinion counts for fuck all...

OK take it away

Speaking for the rank and file ...waiting for the day
We are royalty in exile ...waiting for the day

You can waste some damn good champagne ...waiting for the day
Talk a good game.
Still you remain ...waiting for the day
