

Under the Sun

The Trews

Got back to town tonight, punch drunk, a bad flight
All played out

The merry gypsies played, and danced the night away and they All sang out

We had a good run, when it's all said and done
I hope it all works out

Under the sun, who are the lucky ones?
Under the sun

Country of glowing hearts, and patrons of the arts
Help me out

Star spangled madness, united sadness
Count me out

Under the sun, who are the lucky ones?
Under the sun
Under the sun, who are the lucky ones?
Under the sun
I feel's like it's all depreciating
But we're fading as one
Under the sun, who are the lucky ones?
Under the sun

Malalalalalalalalalalalalala
malalalalalalalalalala
malalalalalalalalalala
malalalalalalalalalala

All the good will, accumulating,
What are you saving? What have you done?
Failure to launch, the crowd is waiting
Recalculating, it adds up to none
Just like the sun, illuminating, I'm just sayin'

Under the sun, who are the lucky ones?
Under the sun
Under the sun, who are the lucky ones?
Under the sun
Under the sun, you are the lucky one
Under the sun
Under the sun, you are the lucky one
Under the sun
