When I'm home I'll give all my love to you And I'll take you out like I used to do And when I'm holding you near You'll have nothing to fear

'Cause you can't beat it, no, no, no You can't beat it, no, no, no Well, you can't beat it baby, no, no Well, you can't beat it baby, no, no

You and I know how love can change it's mind But I'll be home before love has got the time And I'll be holding you tight
And never let you out of my sight

Well, you can't beat it, no, no, no Well, you can't beat it, no, no, no Well, you can't beat it baby, no, no Well, you can't beat it baby, no, no

I'm holding you tight
I'll never let you out of my sight

Well, you can't beat it, no, no, no Well, you can't beat it, no, no, no Well, you can't beat it baby, no, no Well, you can't beat it baby, no, no
