

Torn Between Temptations

The Turtles

I was out last night
And you were in a rage
But it's the same old story, now
This is just a page
I'm so ashamed

Darlin', anythin' I could I would
For you
If you could accept the only thing
I just can't do
You'd understand

But I'll be torn between temptations 'til then
You're true love and my true love again
Torn between temptations
A smile and a frown
There's no doubt about it
Gives me hell
But it feels like heaven goin' down

You don't have to talk to me
The way you do
I can see beyond this, honey
Why can't you?
Listen to me

But I'll be torn between temptations 'til then
I'll be damned and I'll be back again
Oh yes, I'm torn between temptations
A smile and a frown
There's no doubt about it
Gives me hell
But it feels like heaven goin' down
Feels like heaven goin' down
Feels like heaven goin' down
Feels like heaven goin' down
Feels like heaven goin' down
Goin' down
Goin' down
