

Everytime

The Twang

Hey man when you gonna grow up a bit
You're still going on like you're seventeen
Well I slept on it and in the morning
I came to the conclusion that you won't wanna hear

I'm an idiot, a fool, the one that stumbles off his stool
You know I'm the one who says the wrong thing at the wrong time
Would it be too much to ask you just to crack a little smile
Life is short, I hope you realise...

Every time I hear that song I think of you
Every time that I do wrong I think of you
Every time I close my eyes I think of you
All the time I think of you

Hey man when you gonna stop and give up on it
Those things don't happen to people like you
Well I thought about what you said
And I came to the conclusion that you won't wanna hear

You're an idiot, a fool, the kind that lives their life
To drool over talentless people on the TV
The gold that you were told about was sold some time ago
Everybody knows the real gold's near the rainbow

Every time I hear that song I think of you
Every time that I do wrong I think of you
Every time I close my eyes I think of you
All the time I think of you

And every time I ride the train I think of you
And every time that I'm in pain I think of you
And when I'm drawing my last breath I'll think of you
Cause all the time I think of you
