

Marina Jones

The Twins

Oh Marina Jones
Took me to your home
Now we're both alone
The past is turned to stone
Could we know
The present had no future?

Have you seen her
Misdemeanour?
Have you heard her
Scream blue murder?

Have you seen her?
Has she been here?
Have you heard her?
Don't disturb her

Oh Marina Jones
Took me to your home
Now we're both alone
The past is turned to stone
Could we know
The present had no future?

Have you seen her
Misdemeanour?
Have you heard her
Scream blue murder?

Oh Marina Jones
Took me to your home
Now we're both alone
The past is turned to stone
Do we know
The past has got no future?

Under the skies
My true love lies
City of spies
Open your eyes

Oh Marina Jones
The fruitless seed was sown
We were in the zone
But if the truth be known
We could see
The present had no future.
