

Touch Of Heaven

The Twins

The lights are all out, we're undercover
I can't do without you, my tactile lover
I can't resist you, the way you play me
I'm gonna miss you, I need you daily
You're lips are lovely, they move my senses
You sway above me, I lie defencelessly

I'm in captivity
Living in ecstasy
Do what you want to me
And watch me flying

This is the way to my heart
And it's a touch of heaven
You can make love to an art
And it's a touch of heaven

You give me the squeeze, I'm under pressure
Your fingers release, a perfect pleasure
You give my body, the strangest feeling
You lay upon me, your hands of healing
You are the goddess, of love eternal
Your tongue is endless, when used internally

I'm in captivity
Living in ecstasy
Do what you want to me
And watch me flying

This is the way to my heart
And it's a touch of heaven
You can make love to an art
And it's a touch of heaven

I'm in captivity...
