

Location Nowhere

The Underachievers

I need to leave, but where am I going?
Clarity deceive me, location nowhere
I need to believe in, a big something
Find a way to breathe, I'm burning up here

Tears falling down from my face
It's been a hard week, addiction always taking my faith
I seem to crumble, peer pressure taking love from my space
And the devil comes and both of them just come and just fuck up my place
I'm out of shape and I just sit their and whither away
Until I got off out the ground and try and find a new way
The route to really free myself was to look further away
But giving up ain't in my blood and Tupacs in my veins
And then the truth dawned on me, that the mind is the strongest
You really wanna change is when you kill all of your problems
Sittin waiting while the pain is eating at your noggin
When you stand over yourself you can get over the mountain
You on the wrong path, it's time to switch your destination
Such a hard road to paradise, it's filled with temptation
The planet keeps spinning and the world ain't moving slower
If you wanna make a change, no better time then the moment (stay focused)

I remember when it started, heavy feet pushed on the carpet
Chased around the room, sun became the moon
Twisted tongues talk of tomorrow
Open when I should I be guarded
Faces in the room, but I don't see you

I need to leave, but where am I going?
Clarity deceive me, location nowhere
I need to believe in, a big something
Find a way to breathe, I'm burning up here

Back against the wall, you ain't pushing me any further
Got so many scars, I guess I ain't a quick learner
But I made the switch to hood is like the deepest ditch I heard of Our futures are uncertain, but the weed release the burning
Nothing's picture perfect, find the truth, look through the curtains
How you view yourself determines all the thoughts that you've converted
Evil or the purest, tell me how you choose to service
When you promise death to prison, tell me how to be determined
That can never stop us, equalizer with the goals
Like Poseidon with the flows, start a wave around the globe
Choose your path to each his own, you don't have to be a clone
Niggas savage for the status, but no love inside their homes
Happiness ain't sold, all that cash and you alone
I would rather bring some change, then have no money at all
Got the passion for the cause and do the action like some chores
Now I'm reaching your location just by following my core

I remember when it started, heavy feet pushed on the carpet
Chased around the room, sun became the moon
Twisted tongues talk of tomorrow
Open when I should I be guarded
Faces in the room, but I don't see you

I need to leave, but where am I going?

Clarity deceive me, location nowhere
I need to believe in a big something
Find a way to breathe, I'm burning up here
