

Stranger Things

The Underachievers

Lord, uh

Don't judge me by my cover
We're the same thing under
So who to blame but yourself
When your plot got shelved
Could turn you rotten if you jealous
Closest friends wield the weapons
What they tell us
Use my cerebellum
Better keep my head up
'Til the end of my endeavors
I push forward the lever
Lost some friends throughout the weathers
So, this life. You gotta treasure
Right
The fall is what unlocks the flight
My soul wanted more
I can't ignore
The purpose of design
Dropped all distractions and aligned
Like I was Orion
Focus on the now
We ain't promised shit from Father Time
Know my only limit is myself and a scattered mind
Peace the real wealth
The real help
Is when a man's kind
I'm another
You don't get confused by the man's lies
Just to meet the quota
Conversations with my God
The only boss that gave me order
Every loss is how I grow, ain't use nothing that they taught us
Had to re-write the chapter, 'cause their story. I got bored of

Thou shalt not fuck with Beast-Coast rockers
We was outside early, moving flames out the chopper
Stranger Things I done seen up on the blocka
Don't let them screens fool you, niggas. We're the real Shottaz

Thou shalt not fuck with Beast-Coast rockers

Listen. I got a problem
Never keepin' plans
And surfing on the 'Gram
Instead of working all the magic in my hands
I was in a jam
And everyone just told me, "Make a plan."
But it's hard, when you don't know, if you invited to the dance
Had to make it out the trance
Before the winter came
And wither up the progress that we just obtained
The fruits was turning gray

We spent the days
Praying for the rain
We didn't see a change
'Til we approached things a different way

Listen. I seen my brothers slain
Depression is a different game
It got us all in chains
And you just pray that you could switch the lane
But too afraid and comfortable with life staying the same
Gotta power through discomfort to unlock the upper planes
Gotta walk through the fire like the embers wasn't flames
He had the light to make it through without it ever being tamed
Moving forward through the heat to burn away the colder days
Had to realize every failure, came with tools to beat the game

Thou shalt not fuck with Beast-Coast rockers
We was outside early, moving flames out the chopper
Stranger Things I done seen up on the blocka
Don't let them screens fool you, niggas. We're the real Shottaz
