

Dig Yourself Deep

The Undertones

It's midnight and I'm alone in the dark
The starlight hung over your heart

You dig yourself deep, dig yourself deep
You dig yourself deep, dig yourself deep

You don't care, there's always something to do
You breathe air, but it's a poisonous stew

You dig yourself deep, dig yourself deep
You dig yourself deep, dig yourself deep
You dig yourself deep, dig yourself deep
You dig yourself deep, dig yourself deep

You dig yourself deep, dig yourself deep
You dig yourself deep, dig yourself deep
