

See That Girl

The Undertones

I wake up screaming in the middle of something wrong
I'm always waiting for a taxi just to take me back home

It really doesn't make much difference
Everything I say makes no sense
I'm happy just as long as I can see that girl
Bop a dad a da a da

So boys will be boys when they haven't got nothing to do
You're flawed I'm bored naive we haven't a clue

It really ...
